

Easter: Sentences

Use a full stop (.) to end a statement. Use a question mark (?) to end a sentence that asks a question. Underline the letter where you think a capital letter goes.

Correct the sentences below by adding the proper marks. The first one has been done for you.

1. Did you have a nice Easter?
2. name one thing you ate over easter
3. are you going camping at easter
4. do you like eating hot cross buns
5. we will definitely eat a lot of chocolate eggs
6. have you decorated all your wrappers
7. easter is a great time to be around family
8. have you ever seen the easter bunny delivering the eggs
9. does the easter bunny have a fluffy white tail
10. spring is my favourite season

An exclamation is a sentence that shows strong feeling. An exclamation begins with a capital letter and ends with an exclamation mark (!).

I can't believe Easter bunny came!

It's Easter!

Write exclamation marks at the end of the exclamations. Write full stops at the end of the statements.
